How does a Mexican Riviera cruise differ from other cruises?

A Mexican Riviera cruise offers fun and adventure at every port, including kayaking, zip lining, swimming with dolphins, and snorkeling to name a few. You're never far from a beautiful beach or fiesta on Norwegian's cruises to Mexico.

Norwegian's Mexican Riviera cruises

A Mexican Riviera cruise with Norwegian allows your clients to choose from 5, 7 or 8-day itineraries, all with charming ports of call. Your clients will experience old-world traditions, colorful towns, beautiful beaches and stunning scenery while exploring the Mexican Riviera. Whether your client is an experienced cruiser looking to experience a fresh destination, or a new cruiser searching for a new adventure, a Mexican Riviera Norwegian Cruise will satisfy their craving for a tropical experience filled with traditions, culture, nature and plenty of breathtaking beaches.

What type of cruiser is your guest?

Understanding why your client might choose a Mexican Riviera cruise will give you extra leverage in recommending the destination. Here are some reasons why Mexican Riviera cruises are very popular:

- Close proximity to the U.S. with convenient departure from Los Angeles
- Spectacular scenery
- Historical and cultural sites
- Variety of activities (fishing, snorkeling, visiting a tequila factory, beaches, salsa lessons, etc.)
- Perfect destination for families—there's something for everyone
- It's romantic
- Variety of cultural experiences
- Nightlife and gaming (at some ports)

What to bring:

- A valid passport, not expiring within six (6) months of the return of your cruise
- Pack for a range of conditions. Dress in layers that can be easily mixed and matched and serve more than one purpose
- Pack a mixture of short-sleeved shirts, shorts, sun dresses, pants and light-weight jackets. Consider including more than one bathing suit for water activities
- Pack a rain-proof jacket or umbrella
- Wraps and shawls are lightweight and convenient for plane or train rides
- Comfortable walking shoes
- Medications
- Bring sunglasses and plenty of sunscreen
- Finally, advise clients to be sure to bring a camera (one that they can carry with them easily), as well as charger cords and memory cards or sticks

Temps:

Ports of call on a Mexican Riviera cruise primarily have tropical climates, with the potential for some rain.

Daytime high temperatures will typically range from the mid-70s to high 80s.

Average temperatures in Ensenada, Mexico are slightly cooler.

Currency:

U.S. dollars are accepted in many tourist areas, however currency can be converted to the Mexican Peso on ship before visiting a port. Local currency can also be withdrawn at an ATM or exchanged at banks or hotels.

Only Norwegian offers the freedom and flexibility of Freestyle Cruising and Freestyle Dining, with no dress code, pre-assigned seating or dining times.

Norwegian's award-winning casinos offer the only certified slots at sea and the most popular table games, including Blackjack, Craps, Baccarat, Roulette, Pai Gow Poker, Texas Hold 'Em.
